MERRY CHRISTMAS

Somebody ordered an amazing book for you this year:

Stonehouse's anatomy

Unfortunately, your gift has been sent by Santa's office in Korea and their GPS is having trouble finding your house... But DO NOT WORRY, we're in contact with their manager and your gift will be here as soon as possible.

(Our undercover elf told us to expect it by March 2022)

The wait will be worth it!

Happy Holidays from Superani's and LiberDistri's teams
